ANCIENT ORDER OF UNITED WORKMEN

There was a considerable increase in activity in the lodges throughout the jurisdiction during April owing to the campaign for new members which is being carried on by the extension department, and the prospects for May look even more promising. A number of open meetings were held this past week, the most prominent of these being the one at New London on the 10th and the one at Derby on the 13th. The lodges of Hartford are to hold an open meeting on Tuesday evening, May 24, in the hall of Wadsworth Lodge. A number of the grand lodge officers will be present and a very pleasing program has been prepared. The lodge in Williamstown will also hold an open meeting on the same evening.

JEWETT CITY

Undaunted Lodge, No. 34, K. of P., Adelbert Babcock, grand chancellor, conferred the rank of knight on eight candidates, Thursday evening. Never in its history has Undaunted Lodge had so many applicants at the shrine of F. C. B. The year will see 40 new members added to its order. On account of an altercation that led to an assault upon the person of John Kiehlberg, Harry Rogers was fined $5 and costs in Judge A. M. Brown's court Thursday morning.

During the heavy southeast storm in the early hours of Friday morning an unusual occurrence happened in the grackle (crow-blackbird) colony, occupying their usual haunts in the big pine on East Main street. Two of the large but nicely made nests were blown from the trees, both had contained partly incubated eggs which were broken on the lawn. The grackles in a careful nest builder and the ruin of his home by wind is very seldom noted.

One local trout fishermen were whipping one of the brook trout out of the Stone hill Thursday when they came upon a fish trap. The trap was made of a fish trap. The trap was made of a fish trap. The trap was made of a fish trap.

One of the green willow twigs, woven carefully, and with the art, so as to fashion a long slim basket. One end was closed while the other had a long concealed funnel entrance. Stakes driven into the bed of the brook held the trap in place with the funnel end upstream. The plan of the poachers it was evident it was to set the trap well down toward the mouth of the brook, then go away up the current a half mile or more and wade it down, with a great splash and poking under the overhang of the banks with long sticks. There was no evidence to be learned as to catches or ownership. Men with such devices as these can clean out a good brook in a few drives.

A Jewett City man was plowing his garden one day this week when the plow turned out of the ditch and a handsome little turtle not a bit larger in circumference than a silver half dollar. The little chap was exceedingly spry. He could run across a dinner table four feet wide, in as many seconds, which he did with his neck stretched out before and his little sharp tail sticking out straight behind. It is some question how he got where he was found. Turtle eggs are not generally hatched until June.

At the Methodist church, Sunday morning, at 10:45, daylight saving time, there will be special music and the subject of the pastor's sermon will be, Partnership With Christ. Bible school at 12. Meeting of the Men's class; topic for discussion, Cooperation or Competition. The Epworth League meeting at 6 o'clock will be led by Edward Thornton. This is 324 Anniversary Day. At 7 o'clock, praise and evangelistic service; sermon subject, Appearance and Reality. At the close of the evening service the pastor, Rev. J. A. Wood, will install the officers of the Epworth League.

At the Baptist church Sunday morning, the pastor's message to the Juniors will be Carrier Pigeons, and to the Seniors, The Two Kingdoms. Bible school at noon hour. At 6:15, Lemuel Green will lead the Young People's meeting and at 7 o'clock, the pastor's topic for the vestry service will be The Godly and the Ungodly Man. Rev. Myron D. Fuller is the pastor.

Rev. J. B. Hanna of Bozrah Congregational church will preach at the local Congregational church Sunday morning.

INGROWN TOE NAIL

Turns out itself. A few drops of "Outgrow" upon the skin surrounding the ingrown nail releases inflammation and pain and so softens the tender sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight. "Outgrow" is a harmless, antiseptic, manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.
